CENTRE FOR NURSING STUDIES
Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) Program

APPLICATION FORM

Katherine Daley Memorial Award in Nursing

The Katherine Daley Memorial Award in Nursing was established through a generous gift from the Sisters of Mercy Generalate in memory of Ms. Katherine Daley. Ms. Daley was an influential leader whose impact had a great influence on the nursing profession in this province. In her leadership she was visionary in her approach to nursing and nursing education, passionate about the role of nursing in the health care system and in the health of people, and intentional about creating partnerships and collaborative approaches to nursing education. Ms. Daley was the first director of the Centre for Nursing Studies. Valued at $1000.00 and renewable for up to three additional years, it will be awarded annually to an aboriginal student entering the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program at the Centre for Nursing Studies. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award, as defined by Memorial University and must sustain this standing in order to be eligible for renewal.

Name: ____________________________

MUN email: ______________________ MUN Student Number: ______________________

Describe why you entered nursing and outline your career goals: (250 words or less).
(You may attach a typed written description).

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Please submit the following:

1. Official documentation of Aboriginal status

2. Description of financial need, indicating all current sources of funding, including scholarships.

3. Reference: Please provide an academic reference sent directly to the following address:

   Anne Marie Tracey
   Centre for Nursing Studies
   Southcott Hall
   100 Forest Road
   St. John’s, NL
   A1A 1E5

   Referee name: ________________________________

Return this completed form to Anne Marie Tracey or Denise Waterman by October 15, 2019
The Katherine Daley Memorial Award in Nursing

The Katherine Daley Memorial Award in Nursing was established through a generous gift from the Sisters of Mercy Generalate in memory of Ms. Katherine Daley. Ms. Daley was an influential leader whose impact had a great influence on the nursing profession in this province. In her leadership she was visionary in her approach to nursing and nursing education, passionate about the role of nursing in the health care system and in the health of people, and intentional about creating partnerships and collaborative approaches to nursing education. She was the first director of the Centre for Nursing Studies. Valued at $1000.00 and renewable for up to three additional years, it will be awarded annually to an aboriginal student entering the Bachelor of Nursing (Collaborative) program at the Centre for Nursing Studies. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for an award, as defined by Memorial University and must sustain this standing in order to be eligible for renewal.

Student name:_________________________________________
Referee name:________________________________________
How long have you known the applicant:__________________
In what capacity:______________________________________

Please describe why the nominee is deserving of this award: (You may attach a typed written letter):

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
Please return completed form by October 15, 2019 to the following address:

Anne Marie Tracey
Southcott Hall, 100 Forest Road
Office 1125
St. John’s, NL
A1A 1E5

Fax: (709) 777-8177
Email: anne.marie.tracey@mun.ca